Re-thinking Engagement
& Approaches to Learning

National Teaching Assistant Awards 2020

Nomination for: Laura Till

"Laura has taken every opportunity to maximise learner engagement and raise the profile of online learning to make it fun and engaging. She has created fun dance, movement and exercise videos that learners can easily follow. She has always ensured she uses easy to follow instructions and demonstrated them visually to incorporate every learning style and she has gone over and above to be positive and inclusive.

Laura has raised the profile of Real Education and fostered working in partnership with sponsors including producing a video promoting dairy farmers and gaining support and funding from sport England to get more young people involved in sports."

"Laura always makes sure she contacts her learners to check on their welfare and wellbeing. She has outstanding communication skills and will ensure her lessons are adapted and individualised to each learner. Laura produced a range of movement videos during lockdown to support positivity, movement and health. She got her local community involved and raised the profile of Real Education and young people in a positive way."
